

The LLL SIG Newsletter

Lifelong Language Learning Special Interest Group

Japan Association for Language Teaching

A growing number of adults of all ages are engaged in second language study. The Lifelong Language Learning Special Interest Group (LLL SIG) invites those teaching languages to young, middle-aged, and older adults to share information through our website and newsletter, at various SIG conferences and events, and at the JALT National Conference.

Please feel free to contact us!

SIG Coordinator: Tadashi Ishida <papion_tadashi@nifty.com>

Membership Chair: Yoko Wakui <ywakui@bu.ij4u.or.jp>

Treasurer: Junko Fujio

Program Chair: Joseph Dias

Publications: Julia Harper <harper.julia.k@gmail.com>

Webmaster: Malcolm Prentice <lllweb@alba-english.com>

The LLL SIG Newsletter

Table of Contents

Coordinator's Report

Tadashi Ishida

LLL Mini-conference Report

Joseph Dias

Learning English without the Guidance of Teachers

Junko Fujio

Review of The English Language Teaching Expo at Keizai University, Tokyo

Martin Pauly

JALT 2011 National Conference Report

Tadashi Ishida

The LLL SIG Annual General Meeting (AGM) Brief Report

Tadashi Ishida

Full Text of the Revised Constitution of The Lifelong Language Learning SIG

LLL SIG Coordinator, Tadashi Ishida, Featured in Newspaper Article

A Copy of Tadashi Ishida's Article:

An Afternoon in Ueno Park (Part 15)

Tadashi Ishida

Call for Submissions

The Editors